

NORWAY'S NEW KING CROWNED

WITH GREAT CEREMONIES YESTERDAY

Prince Charles of Denmark Now King of Norway—Capital Gaily Decorated and People Enthusiastic

Christiania, Norway, Nov. 28.—King Haakon 7th took the oath of office Monday before the House of Parliament. In a loud voice he swore to support the constitution. He was accompanied by his Queen. President Berier announced that King Haakon was given the throne by the unanimous vote of Parliament and people.

The King and Queen, formerly Prince and Princess of Denmark arrived yesterday on board a man-of-war. They were met outside the harbor by a squadron and escorted by a guard of honor consisting of Norwegian, Danish, British and German warships.

The state entry into the capital took place today. The city was gorgeously decorated with the Norwegian and Danish colors, and presented a fine spectacle. Thousands of visitors from all parts of the country and from other countries were present. According to the program, the King headed a procession immediately upon his arrival, and was escorted to the Government Palace, where he took the oath and was crowned King of Norway. The new Norwegian flag bearing a golden lion on a purple field is displayed everywhere, as are pictures of the new King and his family. The people are very enthusiastic.

CRIMEAN MUTINEERS MAINTAIN ORDER

Sebastopol, Nov. 27.—On Friday night eight sailors at the barracks seized, disarmed and expelled their officers. They then assembled a great meeting.

Rear-Admiral Pisarovski, commander of the practice squadron, supported by a company from the 1st regiment, went to the meeting, and when it refused to disperse, ordered the troops to fire.

Instead of shooting the mutineers, however, two shots rang out, and Captain Stein of the company fell dead and Rear-Admiral Pisarovski received a ball in his shoulder.

During the night the sailors, with the aid of the social democratic leaders, having learned a lesson from the less prudent mutineers at Cronstadt, elected officers and decided upon a program, pledging themselves "not only not to pillage, steal or drink vodka, but to take measures to prevent rowdiness. Saturday morning they were joined by the workmen of the port at eleven o'clock in complete order, the sailors carrying the banner of St. George and the workmen red flags, marched to the barracks of the 1st regiment.

The officers of the regiment threatened to fire upon the mutineers, but General Neftuaroff, a colonel and five other officers surrendered and were sent, under escort, to the marine prison. Being reinforced by the rank and file of the entire regiment, the mutineers and workmen formed a procession, composed of 10,000 men, and marched through the city. At Novikoff place the procession encountered several companies of the Bielostok regiment, with a machine-gun battery. The mutineers approached, their bands playing the national anthem, and the soldiers received the procession with full military honors, presented arms and exchanged cheers.

But the Bielostok men resisted the appeals of the mutineers to join them, and obeying the orders of Commander Schulman, marched off toward the road leading to Balaklava. The battery, however, remained with the mutineers and participated in the meeting. After the meeting the procession formed again and went to the barracks of the Bielostok regiment, where there were other companies, but these companies also declined the invitation of the mutineers to join them.

In the afternoon the sailors from the barracks signalled their comrades aboard the warships to join the ships, and they sent a deputation to Vice-Admiral Chouknin, requesting him to come to the sailors' barracks and hear their grievances. But the Admiral in a short speech, in which he pointed out the madness and criminality of their actions, and the dreadful penalties to which they had subjected themselves, declined to accede to their request. The sailors thus far have comported themselves well.

The city is panic-stricken, and the inhabitants are fleeing. This evening the mutineers stopped the trains in order to prevent the arrival of troops from Simferopol, and many persons left on foot and in cabs, wagons, or any other kind of vehicle available.

NO TARIFF REVISION NEXT SESSION

Montreal, Nov. 28.—Le Canada says Parliament will assemble on January 20 and that there will be no tariff revision until the following session.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Parliament is expected to meet about January 18. Tariff revision will be left over until next session. In the meantime the operations of combines will be gone into.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier attended a meeting tonight held for the purpose of expressing sympathy with the persecuted Jews in Russia and made an appeal for aid in their behalf, saying that those who came here would get a hearty welcome.

PRINCE ALBERT MILL BURNED.

Prince Albert, Nov. 25.—Fire broke out in Hutchinson's saw mill, two miles west of the city, at 11:30 last night, and in half an hour the building and contents were a total wreck. It was valued at $80,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire brigade turned out, but could do nothing to save the building as the fire had gained such headway before the alarm was given. This is the third mill burned in Prince Albert this year.

TRUCK DRIVERS STRIKE.

New York, Nov. 28.—A general truck drivers' strike began Monday, four hundred teamsters quitting at noon. The strike was caused by the union calling on the owners to force non-union men to join the union.

ANOTHER BOUQUET FOR MR. HAULTAIN

Regarding the Haultain election law the Calgary Herald says:

The law under which the initial legislature of Alberta has been chosen, is hopelessly bad in many respects. It appeals first to the illiterate and the ignorant, and it places a premium on corruption. Probably no scheme could be devised in which wholesale corruption could be so easily accomplished.

WHAT WOULD HAULTAIN DO?
(Regina Leader)

After carrying on for three months a campaign addressed almost solely to the English-speaking Protestants of the province, and after his speakers, newspaper organs and canvassers, have diligently sought to convey the impression throughout all the Protestant communities that the law was determined to do away with separate schools and nationalize the system in this province, Mr. Haultain on Tuesday of last week, the 14th inst., announced that he would do nothing of the kind. Having, he said, created the present system with whatever privileges it contained for minorities, he would maintain it. It would be illogical to think otherwise. This announcement was made at a public meeting which Mr. Haultain addressed at St. James' school house, which is situated in the heart of a district settled almost exclusively by German Roman Catholics in his own constituency of South Qu'Appelle. The following day the Leader was informed that Mr. Haultain had so stated his policy, but before saying that such was the case this paper took steps to have the report confirmed or denied. Yesterday the following report of Mr. Haultain's declaration was received by the Leader from parties who were present at the meeting. Speaking of the school system Mr. Haultain said:

"Who created the present school system for you? It was I. Are you satisfied with it? Who gave you power to erect this district as it is? It was I. I suppose that you are teaching religion in this school and German too. Who gave you the power to do these things? It was I. And do you suppose for a moment that, if elected, I should turn around and destroy all that. I have devoted the best years of my life to public affairs, and do you think I would now destroy what I have done? It would be ridiculous; why, it would be like a man erecting a beautiful house, and after finishing it, taking an axe and knocking it down. You know that I gave you these privileges and it would not be my place after being elected to go against them and take them from you. I SHALL NEVER DO IT."

After this positive statement by Mr. Haultain, Mr. Anton Huck, Jr., asked that gentleman the following question:

"Why do you say this here and altogether the contrary at McLean?"

In reply Mr. Haultain said: "Did you not hear me say just now that I am in favor of the present school system?"

LIVE STOCK OUTLOOK

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—It would appear from the high prices realized, recent sales of pure bred live stock that the farmers and breeders throughout the country are fully alive to the importance of improving the standard of their herds of both the beef and the dairy breeds. The contention that there is always a demand for good animals at handsome prices is fully borne out. A good animal costs no more to feed than an inferior one and more is the farmer becoming convinced of the fact that although the initial cost of the introduction of a pure-bred sire into a herd may be large that the improvement resulting justifies the price paid in the corresponding increase in the herd value. Not only are breeders of established herds introducing new blood but foundations for new herds are being laid by men not hitherto considered breeders of pure bred stock. At two recent sales of short horns 100 head brought $5,125.00, at average of $51.25 each. At the Flait sale at Hamilton 64 cattle were sold for $27,303.00 an average of $426.61. This lot included a dozen or more calves under six months of age. The highest price paid for a sire was $2,100 and for a dam 1,600, amounts paid ranged from these down to $110. At the Attila sale at London 36 head realized $7,789 at average price of $216. The highest price at this sale was $550.00 for a Butcher sale of Ayrshires at Maxwell 47 animals realized $9,255 an average price of about $200. One bull brought $700 and one cow $675. In this lot was included a number of calves under two months of age. These prices are probably the highest ever received for animals of the Ayrshire-breed. That the teachings of the Farmers Institutes, the Life Stock Association and the work of the Dominion and Provincial Departments of Agriculture is bearing results is apparent from the above facts.

LETHBRIDGE MINES

Strong Western Company Takes Over the Black Diamond Property

Lethbridge, Nov. 28.—A deal of considerable financial magnitude and of the utmost commercial importance to this section and particularly to the city of Lethbridge, has just been consummated in connection with what is known as the Black Diamond mining property.

A company of influential promoters has taken over the concern and on Friday last the financial arrangements were completed in the organization of the company, which will be known as the Bullwell Coal & Iron Mining Co., Limited. The concern has some of the foremost successful men of the country at its back, below is a list of the officers of the new company:

President—Hon. G. H. V. Bulger, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta.

Vice President—Dr. C. W. Clark, of Winnipeg.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. T. Underwood, ex-Mayor of Calgary.

On the board of directors are some of the leading business men of Winnipeg.

L. M. Johnston, of Lethbridge, has been appointed the company's solicitor, and its banking business will be transacted through the Union Bank of this city.

The property it, question, which is located about eight miles from Lethbridge in a northerly direction, is a magnificent one, comprising almost 5,000 acres, and contains immense deposits of coal and kindred products, all of which will be developed on a large scale. A ten foot seam of coal runs right through the property, which in an assay test revealed four feet of the finest gas, 12 ounces of coke and 150 grains of ash to the pound. There are also a number of seams of iron ore of various thicknesses which were shown to contain carbonate of iron from 65 per cent. up in the assay by the Geological Survey Department at Ottawa.

There is also on the property a vast quantity of building stone and remarkably good qualities of brick earth, besides other valuable products.

It is the intention of the promoters to install large coal, coke and gas works, and to push along development just as rapidly as possible. Brick and cement works will also be most probably be established. Already twenty men are receiving their pay checks every Saturday night, and no time will be lost in placing the concern on the extension plan of operation that has been mapped out, when we may confidently expect to see things humming along right merrily to the increased prosperity of the district and the greater business activity of Lethbridge.

PREMIER IN WINNIPEG

(Free Press)
Hon. A. C. Rutherford, the popular premier of Alberta, arrived in the city on the early train from the west today, and is a guest at the Clarendon hotel. The strain of the campaign evidently has had no effect on the health of the western legislator, and he appears stronger and more vigorous than he did on his last visit to the city.

Mr. Rutherford has been described as a typical westerner, of fine appearance, cordial and unassuming manner, straightforward and direct in speech, he has deserved the popularity he has won, and bids fair to command for many years to come the cordial support of Alberta people. "I am in Winnipeg on a pleasure trip as much as anything else," said the premier to the Free Press today.

"I had matters in Regina which required my presence for one or two days and I came on to Winnipeg solely to meet my friends here and spend a few days here on vacation.

"The campaign in Alberta was a very satisfactory one in all regards and the victory was certainly overwhelming. I noticed an estimate in the Free Press to the effect that we had secured about seventy per cent of the votes cast, and I believe that is about correct. All parts of the country did well for us, the south as well as the north. It was conceded from the beginning that we would have the north with us, but I felt confident that we would also carry the south. Central Alberta has usually been regarded as inclining to the Conservative interest, but as it proved, the central portion of the province was with us also.

"How do you account for so overwhelming and decisive a victory?" inquired the Free Press representative.

"We won," replied the premier, "because we had the best policy. The west could never fail to sustain a party with the policy which we presented to the electorate unless the men presenting it utterly failed to command public respect. It would be invidious to say that we had the best men. We had, however, a list of candidates against whom no exception could be taken and who would worthily represent any constituency. We have an excellent cabinet, a body of men who can be safely entrusted with the destinies of the new province. We expect to be very busy during the next few years, everything must be set in operation, and plans adopted for the transaction of public business.

"The members of the cabinet have been at work steadily since September 1, and we have had a number of meetings. The number of new public schools to be opened throughout the province will be very large. Already since September 1, 50 applications for new schools have been received."

"You have a large number of Americans now resident in Alberta?"

"Yes, a large number of the Americans are among the best of our new farmers and take a warm interest in the administration of the country. I believe we received a very large measure of support from the new American citizens. Democrats and Republicans united in support of the federal party."

"I have kept in close touch with affairs in Saskatchewan and there is no reason to doubt that Mr. Scott will succeed in carrying a large proportion of the constituencies of the province. The issues are the same as those in Alberta, the electorate is the same and the issue will undoubtedly be the same."

"How much interest is there in the Hudson's Bay railway in the west?"

"The building of the railway to Hudson's Bay was one of the planks in our platform, and the hope of building the line will always be of concern to western people. What we proposed to do was to secure information with regard to the matter and we will always be ready to co-operate in this or in any other undertaking looking to the development of the west."

Mr. Rutherford has many friends and acquaintances in the city, and was called out today by a number of Winnipeg people.

Mail for the Far North Land

The Winnipeg Free Press publishes the following description of how the mail is sent from Edmonton to the far north:

The mail packet carrying his Majesty's mail through the far north and even within the Arctic circle, leaves Edmonton on its annual trip on the 7th of this month. Letters only are carried and these are limited to one ounce in weight, as the entire bulk of the packet must not be more than 300 pounds. Registered letters are given the preference, though they are not insured, and other letters are taken in order of the date of mailing.

Until last year this northern mail was delivered by the Hudson's Bay Co. and was subject to their orders in everything; now, however, the Dominion Government have taken the matter in hand, and the mail route is controlled from Ottawa. The reason of the step was that there are a large number of trippers, missionaries, policemen and settlers living in this sub-arctic land, and a regular mail, even though not very frequent is a great demand. The Government has engaged the Hudson's Bay Co. to take charge of the mail delivery, as they are so well qualified to do this. The mail is therefore despatched in much the same manner as previously, except that it is now under government supervision. It leaves about the same date every year.

Two packets are made up at the post office in Edmonton, and are dispatched northward at the same time. One goes to all points between Lac La Biche and Fort Resolution. The second is for points north of Fort Resolution.

COMING OF THE C. N. R.

(Calgary Alberta)
The people of Alberta, from north to south, and from east to west, welcome the coming of the C. N. R., the last spoke of the Winnipeg-Edmonton branch being driven in Edmonton yesterday afternoon.

Through this road opens up a country somewhat distant from Calgary, and will for the time being confer greater advantages to a rival city than it does to Calgary, yet the entire province reaps the benefit of the introduction of this great transcontinental road.

All Alberta will rejoice at its coming. It is the beginning of railway competition. Next to the coming of the C. P. R. itself, no single event since that time has occurred which has been so really important as the access of this new road, the completion of which, as far as this important branch is concerned, was celebrated in Edmonton yesterday.

A Poem With A Moral

Clad in a stunning evening gown,
She sat in K-13.
A diamond sun-burst in her hair
Was plainly to be seen.
Her neck was white as ocean foam
That glisters on the beach.
Her eyes were blue, in every way
She was a perfect peach.

The gentle youth beside her wore
The usual sort of thing,
Clawhammer coat and snowy shirt
And massive diamond ring.
An eyeglass dangled from his neck,
Which constantly he'd wipe.
While on the lady's train he wiped
His patent leather shoes.

Conductor Schenck, the baton raised,
And all his merry men
Began to play the Venus Song.
From Richard Wagner's pen,
Tannhauser sang his mellow strains,
And Wolfram warbled well.
While fair Elia's melting tones
Were like a silver bell.

But what of her in K-13
And Willy by her side?
Pray did they sit in silence there
To hear the Savage Prude
O, no, my child, I grieve to say,
They talked two purple streaks,
As if they hadn't had a chance
For half a dozen weeks.

ALBERTA WHEAT MAY GO WEST

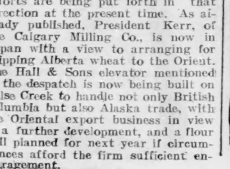

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—Freight officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway say today that there is a likelihood of considerable winter shipments of wheat westward from Alberta to the Pacific coast this season. The Mail firm, of London, which is erecting an elevator in Vancouver, will require considerable grain for the business which they are working up in British Columbia, and there are some industries on the coast which will also prove consumers of interior grain.

So far no special arrangements for trans-Pacific shipments have been made, but the local market on the coast will require considerable wheat. The impetus given to marketing and mining in British Columbia during the past two years has improved the wheat considerably. Vancouver will become the distributing point for flour for the up-coast points, and also for the mines and lumber camps in the interior.

The C. P. R. has already reserved two elevator sites on the inlet for large Alberta concerns. While, as the foregoing dispatch declares, no arrangements for trans-Pacific shipments have as yet been made, strong efforts are being put forth in that direction at the present time. As is ready published, President Kerr, of the Calgary Milling Co., is now in Japan for the purpose of arranging for shipping Alberta wheat to the Orient. The Hall & Sons elevator mentioned in the dispatch is now being built on Palse Creek to handle not only British Columbia but also Alaska trade, with the Oriental export business in view as a further development, and a flour mill planned for next year if circumstances afford the firm sufficient encouragement.

WHEAT PRODUCTION IN CANADIAN NORTHWEST

(National Stockman)
Mr. H. V. Jones, the recognized wheat crop authority of Minneapolis, writing in the Northwestern Miller, the leading milling trade paper of the world, has this to say about wheat growing in Canada:

The Dominion of Canada has great possibilities for wheat growing. The total area of the Dominion is 3,619,818 square miles west of Ontario. The great Northwest Provinces of Canada are adapted to wheat growing for large areas. It is estimated that Canada can produce 200,000,000 bushels of wheat within ten years. This may prove to be a prediction somewhat in advance of the development of Canada's wheat area, but it is entirely within the possible.

The Dominion is increasing rapidly in population, the increase being 21 per cent. for the decade ending 1901, and is increasing more rapidly since the close of the decade than for any period in it. The new population is settling almost entirely upon wheat lands of northwest Canada, and this year there will be a liberal increase in the area over the previous year. In 1901, 49,114 immigrants arrived in Canada. In 1902, the arrivals were 67,378, and the year ending June 30, 1903, the arrivals were 128,361. The new settlers arriving in Canada the last four years obtained over 5,000,000 acres of free land.

The rapid taking up of Canada's unoccupied areas will soon increase materially the wheat production of the world. In 1902, the area of wheat in Canada was about 3,400,000 acres. It is now about 38,000,000 acres, or a little in excess of the government figures.

The total wheat acreage of western Canada for this year was close to 4,000,000 acres. This is a gain of more than three hundred per cent in ten years. The average annual increase in acreage has been about 230,000. Should this be kept up, 2,300,000 acres will be added in the next ten years. The rate should however be larger than in the past. Until the latter part of the nineties immigration into western Canada was small. Now it is large and will be larger. Canada is the last new wheat country on this continent left to the wheat farmer. It is inevitable that the vast areas of free or cheap lands will attract hundreds of thousands of farmers from the high-priced lands in Europe and America. Hence there will be no lack of the necessary population to break and cultivate the prairies.

During the great development of the American West, from 1874 down to 1900, the United States built about 130,000 miles of railway. An immense railway building program must go hand in hand with the development of western Canada as a wheat-producing country on a big scale. Such a program is now in sight. The Canadian Northern and Canadian Pacific railways are building about 1,000 miles of road in western Canada, have 3,000 miles of live projects, and the Grand Trunk Pacific is planning to build about 2,500 miles of main line and branches between Winnipeg and the coast. The mileage is now about 4,000.

When the American West was being developed, the wheat acreage increased about 1,000,000 acres a year. For a number of reasons the increase will not be so rapid in the Canadian West. But it should be about 300,000 acres a year during the next ten years. That would give an acreage of about 7,000,000 by 1915, and a crop in an average year of 175,000,000 bushels.

Frost is the great bugaboo of wheat raising in western Canada; it has been too much of a bugaboo. In regions where the soil has not been long under the plow there is danger of frost marring the wheat, but as the ground is tilled year after year the danger of harmful frosts largely disappears. The average yield of wheat on the Canadian prairies is so high that even if 20 per cent. be allowed for frosted wheat, there is still a good profit in wheat raising. Moreover, in a country that does not raise corn, frosted wheat fits in very handy in the economy of the farm, as it is an excellent food for hogs, cattle and poultry. Frosted wheat has a regular market value.

In twenty years western Canada has had only one crop-fail of the dry year of 1890—that yielded less than twelve bushels to the acre. Western Canada is profiting by the experience of the United States and will make better use of the wheat lands. Rotation of crops and summer fallowing are generally practiced. Both rest the land and preserve its fertility, though summer fallowing is chiefly followed because it keeps the moisture in the ground, something very important in those parts of the country where they are raising wheat on a small scale.

Some day there can be 10,000,000 acres devoted to wheat in western Canada. That would mean a production of 200,000,000 to 2,000,000 bushels. This will probably come about, too, long before Canada has 30,000,000 people.

will soon be needed, and no doubt they will go with a rush.

If you want a first class up to date Cast Iron Range that has been a winner for many years, we have the "Happy Thought." There is none of this Range in use than any other one Range in Canada, and no person has ever heard of a poor one. Then, if you want an all steel and malleable iron range, we have the "Monarch." You cannot break this range and it has a mirror polished top which makes it a thing of beauty to look at as well as to use.

For any up to date line of heating stoves we think we have them all beat. It is not a case of you having to take what we have, our assortment justifies us in saying you can get just what you want from us.

We have from the smallest to the largest heating stoves in any style and for any purpose, to burn both coal and wood, or both. The prices are made to suit the pockets of all, and while we make only a very small profit on each stove we think the quantity we sell justifies us in saying that we can sell on so close a margin and still hold our own. We have everything in Stove Trimmings, and first class Mechanics to deliver and put them up. Do not waste time in king all over the city, but come direct to us.

THEY ARE NO GOOD

(The Khan in the Hamilton Herald)
The young fellows who went up to the Northwest to take part in the harvest operations, are getting home again. They are dropping off along the line in twos and threes and at this moment they are sitting around the cooking stove or holding forth in the village grocery store or tavern on the wonders or blunders, on the riches or hitches, of that great Land.

It takes all kinds of people to make a world. This is exemplified by those young men. Some of them are coming home with golden stories; it is a land of plenty, it is God's country, it's the greatest land on earth, it's Kingdom come in this world.

Another batch declares it is no country for a white man, let alone a white woman, and the way they dress down that land is a terror.

But people ought to bear in mind that that and a great deal worse, if possible, was said about our own beautiful Ontario. How many people well back to the old country and declared that Canada wasn't fit for a dog to live in! Why, I know one family, now the richest and most influential in our neighborhood, who would have gone back to Scotland if they could have raised the price. They had to stay because they couldn't help themselves. Now look at them! They are wickedly rich, and are straddling the heap. They would have been sitting on the cold grey side of a hill in Caledonia, "land of the mountain and the flood," sheep herding the island's sheep, and nibbling at a scum or an omelette while, had they been able to get back to Scotland, either by the high road or the low road, or any other old road.

The same thing is being repeated in the Northwest. There are people out there who would have left it long ago, but Providence knows better what's good for them than they do themselves. Some day they will find themselves rich and comfortable.

I am quite satisfied, dearly beloved, that when you die and go to heaven you will meet lots of people coming down the golden stairs, declaring that they wouldn't live up there if you gave it to them.

By the way, the felonist is born, not made. There is one returned archer, not made, who will be charming company all winter. He is the most gifted and fluent liar that has been on the scene since the late lamented Tom Pepper met with his accident—you know where.

He does it through the kindness of his great big heart. Here are the children, the girls, and the old folks, big-eyed, round-eyed, bright-eyed, and through the kindness of his heart he makes up the most delightful stories of the Northwest. The fun of it is he spent the autumn working in a sawmill near North Bay, and wasn't in the Northwest at all!

But you can't be angry at him, he is so entertaining.

LETHBRIDGE THE DIVISIONAL POINT

A Lethbridge despatch says: For some time past it has been the general opinion that the C. P. R. divisional point would ultimately be transferred from Metchosin to Lethbridge. This opinion has proven correct, and the matter is now settled and will take place next spring providing no breach in the signed contract is made. All that had been waited for to make the thing a certainty was the return of the papers sent to headquarters of the C. P. R. a considerable time ago for official signature. These were received last week by the city clerk Bowman. It is understood that the transaction will be transferred to Lethbridge when the above change is made, this being the heaviest freight point on the Crow.

STRATHCONA NEWS

Interesting Items from Edmonton's Sister Town

Strathcona, Nov. 27.—Work is being pushed at Walter's coal mine near the town. A steam hoist is now in position and the coal is much more quickly and easily brought to the surface than formerly. The mine is about ninety feet deep, the seam about five feet thick and the coal of good quality.

Mr. Douglas, lately travelling salesman for the Aythier Iron Co., has come to town for a season. He purposes locating in the Pembina section where he has been prospecting. He reports that section to be a very desirable place for the settler, as there is good timber, soil, grass and water in abundance.

Mr. Tuttle, late of California and now of the Pembina section, left town today for home with a load of goods. He has been some months at the Pembina and is well pleased with his new home and future prospects.

Mr. Dunham, from near Cooking Lake, came into town today. Mr. Church and company have been on a hunting expedition about forty miles southeast of town.

Mayor Davies, Councillor Carmichael, Dr. Fuller and Mr. Bedard, have returned from their hunting tour. We understand they were not successful in securing any large game.

Work on the water tank, sewers and Plasterer's office, was practically suspended today owing to the low temperature.

The Play

A bumper house greeted Mr. Harold Nelson and company last evening in Robertson's Hall, indicating beyond any doubt that this talented actor has established himself firmly in the favor of Edmonton theatre-goers. Mr. Nelson brings with him on his present visit an accomplished group of artists, the principals among whom are Messrs. Clifford Lane Bruce, Wm. Blake, Bryce Desmond, John Wise, Misses Helen Scott, Elizabeth Patterson and Bernice Parker. The romantic drama, "Prince Otto," afforded Mr. Nelson ample scope for a fine display of his powers as an actor, and repeated applause as the piece ran its course marked the pleasure and approval of a well-pleased audience. In the role of Prince Otto, Mr. Nelson was ably supported by Mr. Bruce as Prime Minister, Wm. Blake took the dual role of the Chancellor and Gustave, and played both parts well, Bryce Desmond, as Prince Otto's cousin, Mr. Gottfried, John Wise as Farmer Leopold, and Frederick Robson as Lord Philip Saxo, took other leading parts excellently. As the Princess, Miss Scott carried a difficult part, but did it ably and well, especially in the last two acts. Miss Patterson, as Countess von Rosen, made a very favorable impression by her wit and cleverness. Miss Parker (Mina) was an excellent counterpart to Gustave in the farmer's costume, and they made a notable pair of rustic.

This evening Mr. Nelson and his company will appear in the Italian drama "Francesca da Rimini," for which he has secured the costumes used by a noted English actor, bringing them direct from London. The scenery for this play will also be especially appropriate and effective, and altogether will surpass anything the company has yet produced.

Charles Grant appeared as counsel on behalf of the plaintiff and Rev. A. McDonald represented the defendant. Judgment for plaintiff for amount claimed.
